WANT 6,000 MEMBERS

Week of December 16 Red Cross Will Conduct an Intensive Campaign for Membership—Everyone is Asked to Join Committees Named.

The organization committee of the Red Cross at a meeting held Wednesday night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce completed plans for the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call the week of December 16-23. The slogan will be 6,000 members and with this object in view an intensive campaign will be conducted that week.

The present membership is approximately 2,500. Most of these have already expired so that in order to obtain the membership set as the mark practically 6,000 members, including renewals, will have to be obtained. Every man, woman and child in the city will be asked to become identified with the Red Cross, and it is believed that the goal set will be attained.

Julian Y. Williams and A. D. Brockett were named chairman and vice chairman respectively of the organization.

Others chosen by the committee follow: J. T. Preston, secretary of the executive committee; Miss Mary Lindsey, chairman of the women's committee; Gardner L. Boothe, director of committee on speakers; M. T. Dwyer, chairman of publicity committee, Mrs. H. B. Caton, roll call cashier; Mrs. D. J. Howell, roll call supply manager; Mrs. Elizabeth Foster, chairman of committee on brassards; Mrs. Overton Price, chairman of committee on window dressing.

The need of funds by the Red Cross is just as great now as during the progress of the war and everyone not identified with this organization should join during the Christmas holidays when the campaign will be opened. The membership fee is $1.

BOOZE TOTERS BEWARE!

Accommodating Persons in Baltimore Will Transfer Suit Cases if You Don't Look Out.

An Alexandrian recently went to Baltimore and purchased a sufficient quantity of whisky to fill a good sized suit case. A kindly disposed colored man assisted him when he boarded the "Booze special" for Washington. The Alexandrian thanked the stranger. The stranger left the car. Next the Alexandrian learned his head far out of the car window as it sped away from the Monumental city and soon his thoughts reverted to his suitcase and its precious contents. There was a suit case beside him. He thought, however, his eyes deceived him. They did not, for it was another suit case and contained bricks. According to reports a large number of accommodating persons are assisting others on the "Booze specials" and a transfer of suit cases is just now the order of the day, especially with the rapidly increasing price of "wet goods."

BILLIE BURKE TONIGHT

Conceded by press and public to be one of the most talented motion pictures stars in the country, Billie Burke will be seen in her new Paramount photo-comedy, "The Make-Believe Wife," at the Richmond Theatre tonight. Miss Burke is among the foremost of screen comediennes and her portrayal in this excellent production is most delightful.

Miss Burke is the central figure of a story that is filled with action and climaxes of unusual strength. The scenes transpire in the Adirondacks and the action has to do with the adventures of a young man and woman who are lost while mountain climbing and who later are involved in a set of circumstances as novel as they are entertaining for the spectator.

This is one of the most enjoyable comedies shown at this playhouse this season.

JURY FAILS TO AGREE

Lou Hall Accused of Killing Eva Roy August 6 Will Again Face a Trial in January at Fairfax Courthouse. Jury Discharged Wednesday Night.

Fairfax Court House, Va., Nov. 29.—Lou Hall, the woodcutter, accused of murdering a fifteen-year-old Eva Roy at Burke Station last August, spent Thanksgiving Day in his cell because the jury which tried him Wednesday failed to agree on a verdict.

After Commonwealth Attorney Vernon Ford and Walter Oliver, counsel for the accused, had made their closing arguments at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon Hall sat calmly before the bar in the little courtroom for nearly six hours while the jury in an upper room balloted on his life.

Shortly before 10 o'clock the jury filed back into court and informed Judge Brent that it would be impossible for them to agree. They were discharged. Hall will be tried again in January.

It was learned that on the first ballot the jury stood eight for acquittal and four for conviction. On the last ballot the count was nine for conviction and three for acquittal. One juror said that some of the nine wanted a verdict of second-degree murder, which would mean a term of imprisonment instead of the electric chair.

In his appeal to the jury Attorney Oliver called attention to the fact that the evidence was all circumstantial. He reminded the twelve men that not once since his arrest, in August, had Hall been shaken from his story that he did not see Eva Roy as he passed through the woods in which she was killed on August 6.

"Gentlemen," said Attorney Oliver, "if you had a dog and some one brought you evidence in this case of a depredation which the animal might have committed, would you, on the strength of that evidence, kill your dog? If you would not, then why take the life of this human being on such circumstantial evidence?"

"I am confident now that Hall will never be convicted," said Attorney Oliver, after learning of the inability of the first jury to agree.

VIRGINIAN A VICTIM

Gives Up $500 on Expectation of Handling $10,000.

Baltimore, Nov. 28.—The willingness of Daniel M. Brock, of Amburg, Va., to help a kind-hearted philanthropist distribute $10,000 in the interest of charity caused him to let go of $500, according to a report to Patrolman Hoyle, Wednesday night.

Brock fell a prey to two well-dressed flimflammers, and the police are making every effort to locate the clever thieves.

Brock says this is how he was duped:

"On Tuesday night I met a man on Charles street, near Monument, and while we were walking up Charles street another man, who was just ahead of us, dropped some keys. Picking them up, I handed them back and we all engaged in conversation. We parted after making an appointment for Wednesday morning, where we met in a room at 416 North Calvert street. The third man in the case then told me that he was immensely rich and had $10,000 to be used for charitable purposes, and desired to have me handle it for him, but that I must first put up some security.

"I agreed to meet the men last night, and I handed over $500, part of which was in Canadian bank checks. I have been unable to come up with either of the men since, although we made a defiite appointment."

HOLIDAY IS OBSERVED

Thanksgiving Marked by Large Attendance at Church Services and Sermons Appropriate to Its Observance Delivered—Rain Interferes.

Church services yesterday attracted large congregations, and the attendance, despite the rain, was larger than any previous Thanksgiving. Sermons appropriate to the observance of the day were delivered in all of the churches. Union service, participated in by congregations of six of the Protestant churches, were held in the Second Presbyterian Church and a sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Cecil V. Cook, of a Baptist church, Charlottesville. The President's proclamation was read by Rev. John Lee Allison, D. D., pastor of Second Presbyterian church. Others who participated in the service were Rev. A. E. Speilman, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church; Rev. E. B. Jackson, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church and Rev. Raymond W. White, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church.

Special anthems were rendered by the choir.

The collection lifted amounted to $61 and will be divided between the Alexandria Hospital and the Anne Lee Memorial Home for the Aged.

Services also were held in the Episcopal, Catholic and Lutheran Churches.

The day was marked by a general suspension of business. At the War Camp Community Club an oyster supper was served uniformed men last evening and dancing followed. Supper was also served in the parish hall of Christ P. E. Church by the women of that church.

It was donation day at the Alexandria Hospital and at the Anne Lee Memorial Home for the Aged, and at both institutions many donations were received by the management.

The day was an unusually gloomy one and the rain kept most persons indoors, although in the afternoon and at night many Alexandrians visited Washington and attended theatres in that city.

Thanksgiving services were held in the chapel of the Episcopal Seminar near this city, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. A fine sermon was preach by Professor Bell on the true aims of the victory won by the allies. Dr. Green assisted in the service. A large congregation, including the professors and boys of the High School, were present. The offering was for the Alexandria Hospital.

AN IMPRESSIVE SERVICE

Last Rites For Miss Mary Custis Lee Held in Crypt of the Lee Memorial Chapel Lexington, Va., Wednesday. Rev. Dr. Wallis Officiating.

An account of the funeral services for Miss Mary Custis Lee, the eldest and last surviving daughter of General Robert E. Lee, the great Confederate chieftain, held on Monday in the Church of the Epiphany, Washington, with the Rev. R. H. McKim, D. D., as the officiating minister, has already appeared in the Gazette. It now remains to give an account of the last service, held on Wednesday, in the crypt of the Lee Memorial Chapel, Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., where the bodies of her father and mother, General and Mrs. Robert E. Lee, and other members of the family are laid.

The remains of Miss Mary Custis Lee left Washington on Tuesday night last, in care of her nephew Col. Robert E. Lee, and Professor Henry D. Campbell, of Washington and Lee University. They were met on the arrival of the train in Lexington, at a quarter before eleven on Wednesday morning, by the students of the University, about 600 in number, in full uniform, as they are now under the military system of the U. S. Government; the old Confederate veterans of the Rockbridge Artillery including General Anderson; Mrs. William H. F. Lee, professors of the University, with many other friends, and residents of the town, among whom were Mrs. Stevens, wife of Professor Stevens, and Miss Letcher, both daughters of Governor Letcher, the War Governor of Virginia; his son, Mr. John Letcher, and Mrs. Letcher, the Hon. Henry St. George Tucker, and the officiating clergyman, the Rev. Dr. Samuel A. Wallis, of the Episcopal Seminary, near this city.

The procession was then formed under the direction of Mr. Paul McNeel Penick, an official of the University, and moved forward in regular order from the railroad station to the Lee Memorial Chapel, with the University band playing the solemn strains of the funeral dirge. On the arrival of the procession at the outer door of the crypt, the remains of Miss Lee, wrapped in the Confederate flag, were taken within, and placed in the compartment of the vault reserved for them, immediately above those of her father and mother, that of General Lee being in the centre of the lowest row. Dr. Wallis then began the part of the burial service of the Episcopal Church, read at the tomb standing in the inner doorway of the crypt. Immediately before the benediction, General Lee's favorite hymn, "How Firm a Foundation Ye Saints of the Lord," was impressively sung. The floral offerings from the various Confederate societies and friends, including one from President and Mrs. Wilson, were very beautiful. That of the President and Mrs. Wilson was laid immediately below the resting place of Miss Mary Custis Lee, and close to that of her illustrious father.

The day was one of the most beautiful of the late autumn. The solemn march to the chapel, and the services were most impressive, and all who were privileged to be present, felt that they had participated in an historic event, which would always linger in their memories.

SERVICES WILL END TONIGHT

The evangelical services which have been in progress for the past two weeks at the different protestant churches in the city will end tonight. These services have been largely attended throughout and as a result there were many conversions and reconsecrations. The services tonight will be held at the usual hour which is 8 o'clock.

ENJOY THANKSGIVING

178 Soldiers From Humphreys Attend Oyster Supper at W. C. C. S. Club—Entertainment at Christ Church Parish Hall.

The Thanksgiving Oyster Supper and dance given by the Alexandria War Camp Community Service Thursday night for men in uniform was a decided success. Promptly at 6 o'clock about 140 men sat down at the well arranged tables in the club room on the lower floor of the building and others came in periodically up to eight o'clock, when it was found by actual count that 178 men had partaken of the excellent repast, and every man who came was served. The success of the supper was largely due to the efforts of a dozen or more of our patriotic ladies who, although it was a holiday, came to the building at two o'clock and worked hard and untiringly until the last man was served. The menu consisted of fried oysters, potato salad, celery, pickles, bread and butter, coffee, cake and pie. Robert S. Jones and A. D. Brockett, members of the War Camp Community Service Executive Committee paid a visit to the club during the festivities and expressed their pleasure at the sucessful outcome of the arrangements.

Dancing commenced shortly after 8 o'clock and more than one hundred of the men participated in this part of the evening's entertainment. The Schmidt Orchestra of seven pieces composed of men in uniform from Camp Humphreys furnished excellent music for the occasion. The popularity of these dances was proven by the number of young ladies who were in attendance last night. The usual Saturday night dance will be given tomorrow night.

For those men who do not dance a party was given last night at the Christ Church Parish Hall, under the direction of Miss H. N. Cummings, and seventy or more soldiers enjoyed a pleasant evening there where games, music, apples and light refreshments were heartily enjoyed.

At the colored War Camp Community Service Wednesday night an oyster supper and dance was given and more than a hundred men enjoyed this entertainment. The music was furnished by the Howard University Military Band, consisting of thirty-five pieces and many of those in attendance from the camps included men from Camp Howard. The usual Saturday night dance will be given at the Odd Fellows' Club for colored men in uniform.

DIES FROM WOUNDS

Abbie Butler, Colored, Who Was Stabbed by William Quill, Colored, Expires at Hospital—Coroner's Jury Will Meet Tonight.

During the early part of this month William Quill, colored, was arraigned in the Police Court to answer the charge of assaulting Abbie Butler, also colored, with a knife. The woman had been cut on the neck, and she appeared the next day as the complainant. Quill was fined $20, the wound not being regarded as serious. Later the Butler woman was brought before the court to answer the charge of lascivious conduct. Under the present state law, she was turned over to the representatives of the State Board of Health and was sent to jail. Several days ago the effects of her wound began to be manifest, and the woman was taken to the Alexandria Hospital. She died a day or two ago.

Dr. T. M. Jones, Coroner, had a jury summoned Wednesday night, and they viewed the body at Demaine's undertaking establishment. Quill was in the meantime arrested on the charge of murder.

The jury, which is composed of Messrs. Lewis H. Butts, James W. Bales, Charles Nagel, Melvin P. Pitts, Edgar L. Crump and Walter T. Cline, was adjourned to meet again tonight at 7 o'clock at Demaine's undertaking establishment and hear testimony.

ANOTHER MOTOR ENGINE

As has been stated in the Gazette, City Council is about to purchase another motor engine for the Alexandria Fire Department. It will be placed, in the house of the Reliance Steam Fire Engine Company on North Patrick Street. The resolution appropriating $10,250 for the purpose was passed by the Common Council last Tuesday night, and the resolution was received by the Board of Aldermen Wednesday night and laid over under the rules. The action of the lower board will doubtless be concurred in at the next regular meeting of the Aldermen.

When this apparatus shall have been received the Alexandria Fire Department will have two auto engines, an auto hook and ladder truck and a motor supply wagon. Eventually an auto engine will be purchased for the Columbia Company.

While the metamorphosing of our department has been necessarily slow, it is gradually approaching completion, and ere many years horses will have been superseded entirely.

The improvements in fire fighting apparatus during the past three-quarters of a century have been marvelous. The history of such devices is an interesting study. A few persons still living well remember the days of the bucket brigade, when water was taken from city pumps and bucketful after bucketful cast upon the flames. Previous to those days huge squirts as large as a cannon, were in vogue. These contrivances were placed upon the shoulders of firemen while others operated the plungers.

The engine which Weems says Washington helped to operate in the streets of Alexandria was of the wheelbarrow type. It was superseded by another a little more modern, and that in turn made way for the antiquated apparatus now in the old Friendship engine house on South Alfred street. This was purchased in the early fifties, and is not the apparatus Washington helped to man, although many Alexandrians prefer to believe it is.

Alexandria has long needed modern fire apparatus, and the good work will doubtless go on until every facility for fighting flames will be in use in our city.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Thanksgiving Day this year is lifted out is provincial plane. The march of momentous events and the happy accidents of time conspired to make what was once the festival of a section an occasion for prayerful rejoicing throughout the world. Following the break, in early November, of the four-year strain of war, our national holiday happened to be the first established feast day to turn up in the calendar, and the civilized world shared with us the opportunity to turn grateful thoughts in the direction of the source of all good things.

America, in common with the whole world, never before had such occasion for Thanksgiving as in this month of November, 1918. We have won peace and have killed militarism. The earth is again a fit place to live upon, and in our songs of thanksgiving we mingled prayerful aspirations that the hand of the Lord shall continue over us, strengthening us for the work yet to be done to bring to perfect consummation the ideals we carried into the contest. This king-made war has been followed by a people's peace, and it is for the perpetuation of this that we must pray and work.

Alexandria, as usual, entered into the joys of the occasion. Many young men of our city, who had recently entered the army came home on furloughs and spent Thanksgiving Day on their own heath. The weather was rainy and disagreeable, and most residents kept indoors.

POST-WAR CONDITIONS

Fifty years ago yesterday the following paragraph appeared in some Virginia papers:

"The wholesale discharge of females from the force of the United States Treasury Department in Washington causes much distress and probably suffering."

As has been the case during the past year and a half, everybody who desired employment during our civil war experienced no difficulty in procuring the same. War brings to the birth many wants, and the government is compelled to add materially to the forces in each department, while new activiities are inaugurated. It has been since the United States entered the world war, and thousands of young women have secured government positions. Like a high tide, however, a recession is sure to come, and as the waters gradually recede they leave much flotsam. This is beginning to be the case now that the war has been brought to a virtual close, and many of the young of both sexes are about to find themselves as Othello, without an occupation.

The services of many females who during the past year have been working for the government in the different departments at high salaries have been dispensed with, and some have found themselves far from home and moneyless, as the majority have spent their salaries almost as fast as they have received the same. In some cases it is said they do not possesses enough money to pay their way to their homes in far away states.

The demand for workmen is not as brisk as it was a few months ago, and by the time the peace terms shall have been signed next spring work will not be as plentiful as formerly.

JEWS AND CHRISTIANS MINGLE

Joint Thanksgiving service by a Jewish and a Christian congregation was held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in the Manhattan Congregational Church, Broadway and Seventy-Sixth street, New York, under the auspices of the Manhattan church and the New Synagogue. In perhaps the first service of its kind the Gentiles used the Hebrew hymn book, while the Jews used the Christian responsive service.

Both Dr. McElveen, pastor of the Manhattan Church, and Rabbi Frisch, of the New Synagogue, spoke, and the chorus choir sang two anthems by Jewish composers.

BANQUET ABOVE THE CLOUDS

In the classic age one of the conceits of the Greeks was that the gods banqueted on Mount Olympus. Had any one appeared in the days of Pericles and prophesied that the day was coming when human beings would feast far above the clouds he would have been adjudged a fit subject for attention on the part of the authorities. Such, however, is being done in the twentieth century.

The first aerial banquet in history was held yesterday on an airplane 2,800 feet above the new flying field of the United States Air Mail Service at Elizabeth, N. J., marking the inauguration of the field as the terminus of the aerial mail service between New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

A few minutes after the mail plane, in charge of Pilot Max Miller, left the field at 12:10 yesterday afternoon, a big Handley-Page machine rose under control of Capt. E. B. Waller, of the Royal Flying Forces, and during a flight of 22 minutes above the grounds a real Thanksgiving dinner was served to nine persons.

HUSBAND OR COUNTRY

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland May be Forced to Make Choice.

The Hague, Nov. 29.—Husband or country?

Holland's Queen may have to choose.

Prince Henry, the royal consort, does not stand high with the people of Queen Wilhelmina.

His sympathies have been with his native Germany. Most of Holland has leaned to the cause of the Allies.

Queen Wilhelmina is devoted to her people and beloved of them. No movement to remove her from the throne finds popular favor. She has ruled wisely.

But Henry, a German Prince, a former officer of the Prussian Army, has never been popular, and Holland people may go to the length of banishing the husband of their Queen from their land. To this extent revolution may go in Holland.

Then the choice between husband or country would be up to the Queen.

Holland has no desire for German domination. Hollanders resent the presence of William Hohenzollern among them. Their old-time feeling against Prince Henry, which flamed when the German Prince came to marry their ruler, is fanned.

Henry had gained a degree of popularity—or at least toleration—when he showed heroism in organizing the rescue of crew and passengers of a wrecked ship off Rotterdam in 1908. He lost it when he refused to turn over for agriculture 15,000 acres of land which he holds for raising of wild deer, stags and pigs. Though the country suffered for food, he would not permit this area to be cultivated.

He continued to cross the border into Belgium to visit German army friends until the Queen forbid his visits.

PARIS GREETS KING

Great Crowds and Parade of Veterans Acclaim Royal Party.

Paris, Nov. 29.—King George, the Prince of Wales, and Prince Albert arrived at the Bois Boulogne railway station in a French special train early yesterday, after having visited British headquarters at Mont-reuil-sur-Mer.

President Poincare and Premier Clemenceau were among a distinguished party of Frenchmen that greeted the British monarch at the railway station. The party proceeded in automobiles down the Avenue Bois Boulogne around the Arc de Triomphe, down the Champs Elysees, across the Seine to the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The route was lined with captured guns and other war trophies and French troops.

A procession of veterans of all allied nations followed the machines. Among them was an American battalion from the division that fought on the British front.

Tremendous crowds acclaimed the British King. The city was ablaze with Union Jacks. Returned French and British prisoners of war were among the spectators, the King meeting many of them personally. A great fleet of airplanes "patrolled" overhead, while light French tanks also participated. The weather was at first bright, but soon a drenching rain set in.

MAY DEMAND EX-KAISER

Procedures Looking to Turning Over Former German Ruler to Allies.—William Said to be Suffering From Shattered Nerves.

London, Nov. 29.—Premier Clemenceau and Premier Lloyd George will meet here Sunday to discuss the procedure for demanding that Holland turn the former Kaiser over to the allies, the Express declared today.

France and Great Britain are understood to have agreed that such demands be made and the Dutch government is said to be ready to comply.

The Express said Marshal Foch and Colonel House may attend the conference.

Amsterdam, Nov. 29.—Count Wilhelm Hohenzollern will soon leave Amerongen Castle to undergo treatment for his shattered nerves in a sanitarium near Arghem, it was understood here today.

He probably will live for some weeks at the home of Dr. Lingbeck, at Kinkumb.

The former Kaiser is reported to be subject to frequent fits of violent weeping. Some days he is unable to write, owing to spells of trembling.

SAYS KAISER WILL HANG

Young Gypsy Queen at Washington Says Execution Will Take Place Before Christmas.

"William Hohenzollern has had lots of bad luck. I see more bad luck for him! I see him in the midst of a crowd of people. They have a rope to hang him with! They are angry. They shout, 'Hang him! Hang him! He killed our sons and brought hunger on us. Hang him!"

"I see his face grow pale with fear. I see him beg for mercy. But the crowd had no mercy; did he have mercy for them?

"I see the rope placed about his neck.

"I see the crowd pulling on it.

"William Hohenzollern is no more!"

This is the fate predicted for the former Kaiser of all the Germans by Maria Demetro, queen of the Washington gypsies.

Maria, a young gypsy girl who might be attractive, if she were in different surroundings, holds forth in a little fortune-telling booth at 1710 Seventh street, where she lives with her father and her little brother. The family are Brazilian gypsies.

BREAKS WITH BERLIN.

Bavaria Objects "To Efforts to Deceive People About Conditions."

London, Nov. 29.—Bavaria has broken relations with the Berlin Government, according to a Munich message transmitted by the Central News correspondent at Copenhagen.

The Munich dispatch states that a message has been sent to the Berlin Foreign Office by Kurt Eisner, the Bavarian Premier, stating that the Bavarian Foreign Office breaks its relations with Berlin "owing to the efforts of Berlin to deceive the people by withholding the truth about conditions."

The Vienna Government intends to bring to trial all persons responsible for the war, including Count Berchtold, Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister when the war broke out, and Count Czernin, Foreign Minister at a later period, according to a dispatch from Copenhagen.

Former Emperor Charles, the Austrian grand dukes and a number of generals are also to be tried, according to these advices.

Zurich, Nov. 29.—Dr. W. S. Solf, the German Foreign Minister, has addressed the following note to the Allied powers:

"According to an additional note sent to the armistice convention by the Allies, Belgium, France, Luxemburg and Alsace-Lorraine must be evacuated within a period of 15 days. This retirement must be made in three stages, each being marked on the map. The third stage already has been reached and encroaches upon the Rhine country to the west of Trum, between Merzig and Sarreguemines and comprises Sarrelouis and Sarrabruck. It seems possible that this encroachment may have been made with a view to attempting the annexation of these territories to Alsace-Lorraine. The protest of the members of the German commission has not been considered. The German Government makes most solemn protest against all attempts intended to deprive Germany of these territories."

The German armistice commission has again presented arguments supporting a delay in the evacuation of territories west of the Rhine, claiming that the economic situation there supports Germany's view.

"FINIE LE GUERRE"

Yesterday we were told by the firing of guns and ringing of church bells, that the war was over at 11:45.

Never in my life have I imagined such a sight, a great city gone mad with joy, literally. The boulevards were packed with people from house to house, with thousands of soldiers of the allied nations, all singing the Marseillaise and the anthems of any of the countries they happened to know.

American, British and French army trucks moved very slowly through the crowd, covered, hood, mud guard, inside and out with a cheering, flag waving, laughing mass of soldiers and women. At times a taxie or private car would venture on the street; immediately it would be completely covered with people.

The Yanks were the big favorites and the air was full of the cry of "Vive la Amerieque." I was standing on the Rue Royal watching a Yank soldier carrying on his shoulder another Yank who was waving a great flag; up the steps of the Madelline they marched and from the top sang "The Star Spangled Banner," to the cheers of thousands.

The next thing I knew another officer and I were the center of a ring of girls and Poilus. For a moment they danced around us and then the girls charged. Never was I kissed so many times and I am not sure but by more than one of the Poilus. As this was my first experience of the kind and it was broad day light, I was very much embarrassed, but it amused the crowd very much. After that first experience I got used to being kissed without any warning.

I have seen the front, batteries in action and all kinds of projectiles exploding, but the most wonderful thing of it all was this city mad with joy.

I wish I could tell you all the funny things and also the pathetic things I saw. One thing that showed the spirit of the day as clearly as any thing was a British car with three dignified (at one time) staff officers in it, all standing up, cheering and waving the ever present flags.

About midnight on my way back to my quarters, when each of my arms was taken by two girls. This party consisted of four girls, two privates and myself. I conceived the brilliant idea of capturing a gendarme. We made the capture but the gendarme grabbed one of the privates and kissed him on both cheeks. That broke up our party. Can't you imagine the embarrassment of that doughboy.

At night some of the singers from the opera sang the Marseillaise from one of the windows of the opera house. One woman, draped in the French flag was the favorite, and when she finished I think fifty thousand people cheered and wept.

One poor mother was there with a little girl about eight years old. I held the little thing on my shoulder and with the aid of a burly sergeant we got them both out of the crowd. It is the 14th now. All day yesterday and last night the streets were crowded with just as joyous a bunch.

KILLS ASSAILANT

Lima, Ohio, ov. 29.—Private William J. Klinefeller, twenty-two years old, was killed today after shooting Patrolman George Cook, forty-two.

Klinefeller, it is expected, threatened to shoot his bride of a few days. When Cook attempted to arrest the soldier, the latter shot the patrolman.

Staggering, Cook struck the soldier with his club, crushing his skull. Both died soon afterward.

ORDERED OUT OF COUNTRY

Copenhagen, Nov. 29.—The Austrian government has ordered former Emperor Karl to leave the country because of anti-revolutionary agitation by conservatives a Leipsig dispatch reported today.

London Nov. 29.—The Vienna government intends to bring to trial all persons responsible for the war, including Count Berchtold, Austro-Hungarian foreign minister when the war broke out, and Count Czernin, foreign minister at a later period, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen today.

Former Emperor Charles, the Austrian grand dukes, and a number of generals are also to be tried, according to these advices.

SHOT BY DARING ROBBERS

The Washington police are today investigating another daring hold-up in southwest Washington. Abe Silverman, who conducts a grocery at 50 M street southeast, was the victim.

Silverman was about to close his store at 9 o'clock last night when three colored men entered. Two of them thrust pistol in Silverman's face and threatened his life. The third started to go behind the counter to the cash drawer. When Silverman attempted to stop him, the negro shot Silverman in the knee. The bullet caused a slight flesh wound. Silverman fell to the door, and the negroes rifled his cash drawer, taking $42. After the highwaymen had fled Silverman walked to his home at 135 L street, and was later taken by Fourth precinct police to Emergency Hospital.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Harry E. Mettz, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mettz, of Lynchburg, was killed by a train Tuesday at Gladstone.

Suit has been instituted in the Federal district court at Lynchburg by Rosa C. Tyree, administratrix of Samuel W. Tyree, against W. G. McAdoo, Railway Administrator, for $40,000. The husband of the plaintiff, a Southern Railway fireman, was killed in a wreck last July, and suits to recover for his death. He resided at Spencer, N. C.

For the past few days the mustering out of men at Camp Lee has been in progress, principally from the Central Officers' Training School. Between 3,500 and 4,000 have received honorable discharges. About one thousand of the men will remain at the school for graduation, after which they will enter the army reserve.

John Coles, an aged colored farmer of Dinwiddie, was burned to death Saturday night in his cabin on Granville River. He had a quantity of cotton stored in his cabin and it is supposed that this accidentally caught fire. Just as neighbors arrived to render assistance, the roof fell in and only the charred remains of the body was found after the fire. The old man's savings of $250 were burned.

Over six thousand troops landed at Norfolk Tuesday night by the transport President Grant, which brought them from Hoboken, where they were preparing to embark for France, when hostilities ended. Tuesday began entraining for Camp Lee, where they will be demobilized. The units are composed largely of Western regiments. A majority of the men are greatly disappointed because of the interruption of their journey overseas.

A warrant was sent Tuesday to Camp Aberdeen, Md., for the arrest there of Private Mahon Wright, who is charged with the criminal assault and murder of Miss Rosa Farmer in Campbell county last week. Wright, a draftee, who can neither read nor write, was at home at the time of the crime, but left when it was discovered, returning, it is claimed, by the authorities, before his furlough expired. Wright comes from a respected, steady mountain family.

Life sentence in the penitentiary was the penalty which a Hanover county jury meted out Wednesday to George Hewitt, alias James Green, alias Reuben Butler, bogus revenue officer, from Chestertown, Md., charged with murdering Edward Johnson, a highly respected negro farmer of that county, by blowing off the top of his head with a shotgun and then stealing his buggy and horse, which were sold in Richmond the next day. The crime was committed in October, 1917.

Dr. Paul Strother, of Lynchburg, died Tuesday night as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident Monday afternoon near Amherst Courthouse. A Lynch Ward, also of Lynchburg, the driver, lost control of the car, which plunged over an embankment. Both men walked to a nearby village, came home in another automobile and retired apparently not badly hurt. Tuesday morning Dr. Strother remained in his bed, but it was not until the afternoon that his condition came to be regarded as critical. He died about 9 o'clock at night.

The People's Bank of Hopewell was closed Wednesday by the State Bank Examiner, pending the appointment of a receiver. The bank was organized May 4, 1917, with capital of $14,000. It is said that its present condition is due to the rapid withdrawal of deposits following the closing down of the Dupont gun-cotton plant at Hopewell some two weeks ago. Two other banks in Hopewell, one a national bank and the other a State institution, have had to pay out a great deal of money to depositors in the past few days, but both announce they are able to meet all such demands, without cost to stockholders. Both institutions are understood to be backed by one of the leading national banks of Petersburg.

AMERICAN RAILWAY EXPRESS OFFICIALS JOIN WITH COUNCIL OF DEFENSE IN PLEA FOR EARLY CHRISTMAS SHOPPING.

(Suggest December 10th as Final Shipping Date.)

Vice-President D. S. Elliott, in charge of traffic for the American Railway Express Company, has informed all operating officials and agents of the express organization throughout the United States, that it is the purpose of the company to uphold in every way the request of the Council of Defense that Christmas express shipments be started on their way by December 5th.

A concerted effort will be made in every city and town in the country by the 125,000 express employes, to emphasize the importance of preventing any possible congestion of transportation facilities during these critical times. Although the express facilities are very elastic, so much of the equipment is now used strictly for war purposes, that all gift shipments for long distance travel should be delivered to the express company not later than December 5th, and for short hauls not later than December 10th. This will allow ample time for sorting and delivering before Christmas Day.

"We wish to emphasize strongly," said Mr. Elliott, "the point raised by the Council of National Defense, that nothing should be forwarded, which will interfere with essential war business. Just now the movement of equipment and supplies for the Overseas Forces is heavy and exacting, and there should be no domestic burden placed upon transportation, which would tend to lessen the delivery of war shipments.

"Also during winter months there is a tremendous movement of foodstuffs to all of the larger cities. These foodstuffs are perishable and next to war shipments must be given first consideration.

"We are asking our men everywhere to bring these points before our patrons, and to emphasize more strongly than ever the vital importance of proper packing and legible marking. We are asking them to refuse all shipments which are not packed strongly enough to reach their destination with ordinary handling, and to insist that the address of the sender and of the consignee be placed on a card and enclosed inside the package."

A Rome dispatch says the Vatican has announced that Cardinals Gibbons and Manciri have asked President Wilson to use his influence toward permitting the Pope to have a representative at the peace conference, with a view to securing an adjustment of the Roman question.

The abdication of the Grand Duchess of Luxemburg is expected shortly. The Luxemburg chamber of deputies is to decide whether the grand duchy is to become a republic or whether it shall be merged with Belgium. The latter course is said to be generally favored by the people of Luxemburg.

Governor Stephens, of California, yesterday commuted to life imprisonment the sentence of Thomas J. Mooney, under death sentence for participation in the Preparedness Day bomb explosion in San Francisco. It is understood the governor's action was based on the request of President Wilson not to allow Mooney to hang. He was to hang at sunrise Friday, December 13.

In well-informed quarters in London it is believed unlikely that peace will be signed before April. Premier Lloyd George will go to Paris early in December, simultaneously with President Wilson's arrival there. It is believed the preliminary conferences will last until Christmas. The conference proper is expected to begin early in January and the general belief is it will require at least three months.

It is said that all German soldiers with the exceptions of the classes of 1898 and 1899, are being discharged as rapidly as possible, according to reports reaching the American Third army. These two classes will be held in service until Field Marshal von Hindenburg sees fit to discharge them. The schedule of demobilization in Germany is beinig carried out as rapidly as the troops reach their various headquarters.

President Wilson was yesterday presented with a gold medal by the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith for having, declared Dr. Adolph Krause, of Chicago, who made the presentation, "contributed most during the year to the welfare of the Jewish people and humanity." Dr. Krause, president of the order, paid glowing tribute to the President, Dr. Henry Morgenthau, former Ambassador to Turkey, was present and participated in the ceremony."

"What should prove to be a sensational statement may be published in the early days of next month showing the approximate amount of valuables and gold which Germans have looted from banks, churches and buildings, public and private, in Russia. The Russian gold reserve, which is in bullion and currency, was recently moved to Germany in accordance with the bargain between the ex-kaiser's government and the Bolsheviki."

Investigations into the reasons back of the present unprecedented high cost of butter an deggs have brought forth assertions from produce dealers in Chicago that the armer is receiving nearly 80 per cent. of the above normal increase. The remainder was said to be divided among manufacturer, jobber, wholesaler and retailer The best quality of butter in Chicago is selling at 73 1-2 cents a pound, with strictly fresh eggs retailing at 78 cents a dozen.

President Wilson has definitely decided on four of the five envoys who will compose this nation's delegation to the peace conference. They are the President, Secretary of State Lansng. Col. E. M. House and Henry White, former Ambassador to France Mr. White will be the Republican member of the official party. The fifth member of the delegation has not yet been decided upon, but will probably come from the Cabinet. Secretary of the Navy Daniels and Secretary of Agriculture Houston are deemed likely selections, though the President may decide to name a Senator for the fifth post.

DIE OF INFLUENZA

Man and Wife Found to Have Perished Alone in Home.

Washington, Pa., Nov. 29.—Clasped in each other's arms, with the agony of their death struggles plainly pictured on their faces Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Rodgers were found dead in bed in their home in Central avenue at 5 o'clock yesterday evening, death being due to influenza.

They became ill about the same time several days ago and had practically no attention except that given by neighbors. Yestrday their conditio became serious, and last evening a physician attended them and left medicine. This morning a neighbor who had been stopping in each day entered the house and found them apparently sleeping. It is evident now that both were dead at that time. Again, late in the afternoon, the same neighbor stopped to see if they needed attention, and found them in the same position as they had been yesterday morning. The neighbor tried to arouse them, but could get no response and summoned aid. It was found they had been dead for some hourhs. Each was about 40 years of age.

C'est la Guerre

It may be that your telephone service does not seem to be what it was before the war. If so, it is a regrettable but an altogether to-be-expected condition.

The war has put a great strain on many lines of business, including the telephone. Men, women and materials are scarce, railroads are congested, many of our people have gone into the service. The rest have their hands more than full with the heavy and constant demand for telephone service. New operators are constantly being trained and the Company is making every effort to hold the service at a satisfactory standard. We bespeak your consideration and helpful courtesy through a most trying time.
